

E.1.5. mountain-drive - left side installation

Since late 2010 all clutches are machined symmetrically. No problem to install a mountain-drive on the left side.

Please notice, that you need a right hand thread for the locking nut instead of a left hand thread for standard installation!

For left hand installation, you mount the crankarms vice versa (but right hand pedal thread still on the right side!).